

Cowes Primary School has a new sports team. A junior girls' football team has recently been formed, and played its first competitive match against Inverloch last week, winning easily. The team will now go on to play at district, regional and state level.